A Young Lady and Gentleman Going To Church Shot at on the Streets.

We hate to write of such a thing as occurring in a civilized communi-ty but as a public journalist duty forces us so to do. Last Sundaynight as a young gentleman was escorting one of the first young ladies in town to church, as they were coming down Newbern Avenue some one ran around the corner and cried "stop." The couple halted and turned to see, when the party drew a pistol and fired twice and then running a few steps towards them fired the third time. The young lady of course was frightened into almost a craze and her escort carried her into one of the dwelling houses on the street. The young gentleman, her escort, yesterday morning he did not know who the party was. Be this as it may whoever it was should be found out if there is law enough in town to track him out and neither spare, nor mercy, nor anything but the stricte t and sternest justice at the bands of the law meted out to him, no matter who he is, or what the considera-tions. We have again and again tred to cry out the little pistol from the average young man's pocket but oh, how easy the law could make them sick of carrying the little pisdeeds as the above mentioned to be stopped. Easy, easy. Just make an example out of the offender. We blush to own it but the law in this country is becoming nothing more than a little poodle dog that young ladies fondie and play with, and any half dozen good lawyers can stroke its back and make it caress rather than punish the guittiest of-fender. This is the matter. We need the law to be made a terror unto all offenders, rich and poor alike, and alike to Jews or Gentiles, saints or matter who, if they are guilty, un-slip the dogs of law and let them feel their teeth. [LATER.] Since the above article was written we learn the voung man who fired the pistol was Edward Haywood a son of the distinguished lawyer of this place E. G. Haywood Esq. The youth says he fired the pistol in the air, and no doubt did, but for all a very short time, that at present th that, it was an outrageous and insane piece of fully and will no doubt go hard with him. He will be before Mayor Manly to-day.

A Baptist Preacher Unfrocked. We see that the Rev. C. A. Kendrick of the First Baptist Church at Columbus, Ga., and the successor at that Church of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Skinner, well known in this city, is now in jail in Columbus and charged with having been caught in criminal intercourse with a young girl thirteen years of age in his study in the church. He was arrested and jailed on a warrant taken out for seduction. He fled from the town but was pur-sued and captured. Mr. Kendrick had been pastor of the church there about three years. The jail was guarded by the Columbus military to prevent any demonstration from a mob. Let no mocker seize hold of such an item as this to muck the more against the Church. It stands just this way: The Rev. Kendrick was a fraud; and God has chosen this as the time to hold him up before the world and show him as a fraud, and the same God will do all such the same way before they die. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. EASTER ETERNALLY SETTLED.

A Letter From Headquarters.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION April 18, '76. Sir: Your letter inquiring on what day Easter falls was duly received and referred to Prof. Coffin. of the Nautical Almanac office, who replies as per inclosed copy of his letter just received.

Very truly yours, JOSEPH HENRY,

N. A. Ramsey, Durham, N. C. NAUTICAL ALMANAC OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15, 76. My DEAR SIR:—You can inform Mr. N. A. Ramsey that Easter day in 1876 falls on the 16th of April ac-cording to the rules of the Astronomer Clavius in 1603, in accordance with the Gregorian reformation of the Calendar. The declesiastical Calendar is governed not by the real moon but by a fictitious moon, whose double lunations are exactly 59 days. The two coincided in 1800, but the latter falls behind the former one day in 308 years. In the year 2100, they will again coincide by advancing the Calendar moon one day.

In 1876 the Calendar moon is full on the 9th of April (European time,) or Sunday. Easter day is therefore the Sunday following.

President Barnard has given a full discussion of the Ecclesiastical Calendar in an appendix to the Journal of the General Convention of the P. Episcopal Church 1871.

Very truly yours,
(signed) J. H. C. COFFIN.

A Letter From the Newbern Greys, NEWBERN, N. C., May 1, '76. Editor News:—Referring to your paper of the 26th instant I find an article there relative to General Gorman furnishing arms and ammunition only a few weeks ago to a negro mil-itary company in the city of Raleigh. The mere fact that the Governor or General Gorman had given these arms did not awaken any surprise in my mind, knowing the peculiarities of the men, but in view of the follow-ing facts, which I feel it my duty to ing facts, which I feel It my duty to give you, I am forced to acknowledge that nothing ever more surprised me, not even the present Governor going by accident from the Senate into the Executive Mansion.

On the 15th day of May, 1875, our fact will target the more than the senate that the senate into the senate that the senate that first military company since the war was organized under the name of the Newbern Greys with S. D. Pool, Jr., as captain. Application was made to the Governor by Captain Pool in ac-cordance with the law laid down in Battle's Revisal. The bond offered for the arms was a good one, the three gentlemen signing it being worth in the aggregate about $200,000. No objection was made to the bond or to the form of our application for arms. Governor Brogden promised Captain Pool that he should have the arms in State had no guns on hand, but was expecting the arrival of arms from Washington every day, and when they were received he should have them—sixty stand of new, bright breech-loading Springfield rifles. How anxiously the members of the company looked for the arrival of these arms none but the victims of misplaced confidence can tell. Gen. Gorman said we should have them; Gov. Brogden said we should have them, and the members of the Greys did not dream for a moment that men holding two such high offices as that of Governor and Adjutant General would be guilty of a wilful violation of a promise made in sober moments, and upon an occasion when deception would have been out of place; therefore after the arms reached R leigh from Washington, some of the members of our company actually met the freight train at the depot upon its arrival from Goldsboro for two successive weeks, expecting every day the arms would come, but Mr. Editor, they did not know the little ways of the Governor and Gorman then as they do now. Our citizens were all interested in the Grays and when they found that we had been when they found that we had been deceived by persons from whom we did not expect deceit, they purchased second hand muzzle loading rifles in Baltimore and very kindly gave them to us, to prevent the company from disbanding until we could get a Governor who would furnish white as well as negro companies with the arms of the State. Gen. Gorman returned the bond to Capt. Pool with a printed circular which stated that no more arms would be furnished to companies until the Legislature passed another law or amended the present one, giving as a reason that it was "dangerous to give out arms" in-discriminately to all who applied for them. Now, sir, in order that the Governor might see the members of the "Newbern Grays" were all gentlemen and the sons of gentlemen, we sent him in July last a petition for aims signed by all of the members of the company at the same time, and by the same mail letters were written to him by prominent gentlemen of both politicial parties of our city on the subject to which he paid no at here: tention, but Gen. Gorman returned our bond as stated as above. Gov. Brogden was approached more than half a dozen times on the subject, but always with the same result. After our first interview with Gen. Gorman and after seeing bim at Beaufort in July we paid no further attention could take guns away from both white and black and put hoes or to him, when we found from experience that he was a man whoses promises could not be relied on. We understand that arms have also been furnished to the working utensils of some kind in their hands instead.

Gorman returning our bond in August last. Having briefly stated how we did not get arms from the State, I have make, I have seen Gen. Gorman's card denying that he furnished the negro company with arms on account of the approaching election in Raleigh; I have read his "spread eagle" talk about his love of his native State, I have seen how he and the Governor promised us arms last summer and did not issue them to us and mer and did not issue them to us and how he (Gorman) returned our bond to us with a printed circular which by implication accused us of being a band of dangerous persons, and now I have seen how he fur-nished arms a few weeks ago to a highly respectable negro company in Raleigh, the respectability of which consisted in its color, its captain loving the property of Raleigh, like the General, and being foreman of a fire company, therefore I shall not comment on the card further.

The Newbern Grays will again make application for sixty stand of willa, Greensboro and Raleigh have all been furnished with arms by the Governor or General Gorman while Newbern, a city of 7,000 inhabitants, has always been promised but never furnished with arms.

The Governor And General Gorman. At the request of Mr. Gorman we went with him yesterday to the room of Governor Brogden at the National Hotel in regard to the misunderstanding seeming to exist between himself and the Governor as to issuing the arms to the colored company here. The Governor stated that he agreed for General Gorman to issue the arms, but didn't know when they were issued, but it seems Mr. Gor-man issued them the same day the Governor agreed to it. This matter all arose from Gov. Brogden having said to a NEWS reporter the other day, when the reporter asked if any arms had been issued to the negroe have I authorized any to be issued. But the Governor since remembers he did agree for General Gorman to issue the arms. Well, nobody objects to colored men having a military company and being armed as such just as the white military, but so far as we are concerned, we would if we

The negro that robbed the route agent. Statesville American: The case of the United States vs. Henry Turner and Lucy Turner occupied the time of the court from Friday morning until Monday night, and was very fiercely contested, resulting in the conviction of Henry Turner and the acquittal of Lucy Turner. He was sentenced to the penitentiary at Albany, N. Y., for three years at hard labor. He had stolen eight registered letter packages from C. D. Waddell, route agent between Raleigh and Fayetteville, the stealing having taken place at Sanford. Wm. S. Ball prosecuted for the govern-ment and Wm. H. Bailey defended.

He was always drinking. Salisbury Watchman: Last Sunday the sun rose beautifully shedding his brilliant rays on all nature, inspiring all sentient beings with the sweet calm of a quiet sabbath, but ere the churchgoing bells had struck summoning to the house of God, the public were called to view the ghastly remains of Wm. M. Etheridge, found in au old dingy shanty in one of our back alleys. It was a public disturbance but not a public surprise, for all who have the most appearance of the contract of the c knew the man were prepared to hear of a sudden and horrid fate over aking him. For some years he has been a picture sickening to look on, a living illustration of the work of intemperance.

He was a gunsmith, but more generally occupied the little time de-voted to work in making walking sticks, always drinking his earnings. He raised a family, little better than himself it is feared, who have all gone and are probably living just such a life as they learned from him.

A roguish postmaster on the pad. Asheville Expositor: For several months past rumors of a detrimental character have been in circulation against one Samuel Carson Vance of Mitchell county. He is implicated in abstracting from the Post-office, (he being Postmaster at Grassy Creek,) a thirteen bundred dollar draft, in favor of Milton English, and several others to the amount of about $2,400. Some of these drafts were on the Pension Agent at Raleigh, and the money was obtained by a forgery of the name of the payee.
Within the last few days the said

S. C. Vance has fled from the State to parts unknown and the Post-office at Grassy Creek will probably be closed. This man Vance has been under a cloud of suspicion for some time. He had managed to get license to practice law, and had made him-self a first-class petty-fogger under the very low practice, which now prevails in our Courts. He like some others who are a disgrace to the pro-fession of law, ought long since to have been stricken from the roll of Attorneys.

A good advertisement instres a business connection on the most permanent and independent basis and is in a certain sense, a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prices. Experience has shown that the dealer, whose wares have obtained a public celebrity, is not only enabled to sell, but is forced to sell at reasonable than in the advertising columns of a widely circulated newspaper. Such is the opinion of a man who is known to be the largest advertiser in the United States. That is THE DAILY NEWS.

The Quality of the Blood. The Quality of the Blood.

Upon the quality of the blood depends, in a great measure, the vigor and health of the body. If the blood is wanting in nutritious properties the muscles are sure to be weak and flabby, the flesh deficient in quantity, the skin sallow and dry, the cheeks hellow and the eves lusteriess. To improve the quality of the blood, stimulate digestion and assimilation with Hostetters Stomach Eitters. Under the influence of this strength-creating cordial the body is efficiently nourissed and the flesh grows, in consequence, more abundan, the muscles become more compact, the cheek becomes tinged with a healthful color, and the eye regains its brightness. The Ritters also free the blood from impurities by stimulating the kidneys and bowels to thoroughly perfern their duty of carryina off the refuse of the system, which, if not entirely got rad of, poisons the vital current.

Dr. W. F. Scott, President of the College of Physicians, Montreal, writes: "I have recommended Co'den's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Fonic Invigorator as the best preparation used for deality, Indigestion, Dyspensis, Fever. Ague and Loss of Appetite." Williams & Saywood, Agents.

JOURNALISTIC.

We are pleased to learn from the Index Appeal that the Daily News will soon be resumed by Mr. R. H. Glass and his son, R. H. Glass, Jr. as on evening paper. While the Index does not allow us to suffer from want of news and sprightliness we confess to great regret at the temporary suspension of the News and will gladly welcome its reappearance.

DEMOCRATIC EXTRAVAGANCE(1)

About as cool a piece of impudence as we recollect ever to have seen is the arraingment by the Lexington Central of the Constitutional Convention for its extravagance in the item of paper, (which includes stationery and the paper required to publish the ordinances, &c.,) which that representative of an economical (!) party says cost the tax payers of $4,500, so that the whole cost of the Convention is run up to the enormous sum of $30,000! Why we remember the staple ar ument against the call of the Convention was its cost, which radical orators and papers demonstrated would cost $500,000, if not more. The Democrats argued it would not cost much more than $30,000 if so much. Now the Central makes a great outcry because it may have cost $30,000. Where are your $500,000? You must prove yourselves better calculators if you ever expect to get the confidence of the people.

THE Tribune calls upon the Demo erats to guard against an excess of over-zeal in the subject of investigation. Not to use an unseemly comparison, it is very much like trying to call off the dogs when the game is afoot. The only trouble appears to be what we have often known in fox hunts in Orange—the dogs would be confused by the multitude of trails, no sooner would one fox be started than another and another would start up and in the bewilderment probably all would get off. The trail first opened up by Bristow in the whiskey trials has been crossed and recrossed by Belknap and Robeson, and Babcock again, and by the tracks of yet bigger quarry, that all the sagacity of the hunters is needed to carry them out to their conclusions. The caution to be given is not against excess of zeal, but against diversion from the real objects of pursuit. In that pursuit the House is encouraged by its success though embarrassed with the multitude of subjects, but it will hardly stop after having treed Babcock, after bringing Belknap to bay, after having brought Schenck to taw, after terrifying Robeson, and after causing a general panic in the ranks of office-holders everywhere, and making the Republicans assume such a sham of virtue that they are driven to the promise of putting an honest man in the White House if they can

COUNTER CHARGES. The effort of the Republican party to divert attention from their own misdoings by the eager pursuit of the short coming of any unfaithful Democrat, is illustrated by the clamor raised against Col. Pool. For that we have no word of defence upon the explanations Col. Pool has given us, and unless he gives a better one, the Democratic party must wash its hands of him. His solitary example however is an insignificant set off against the multiplicity of offences for which the Republicans stand charged, and for the commission of which they will be punished. Col. Pool, and the indiscretion of Mr. Robbins are presented as a counterpoise to the great mass of dishonesty that pervades the Republican party, that runs through the whole national administration, and is not without its contagious influences in North Caro-

The people will not be diverted by the apparition of Col. Pool's abuse of his trust from pushing to extremity the great rogues agains; whom they now rise in self defence. It is by their default, it is by their use of the public monies, it is by their reckless extravagance at the expense of the public tressury, that the country is impoverished and business prostraed, national credit weakened and national honor tarnished. These hings, this distress and this poverty are participated in by the people of North Carolina as well as other parts of the country, and they will not be thrown off the track by any fa'se scent or turn upon Col. Pool, as a Democratic criminal, when the larger, more abundant and more destructive game of republican rascality is to be run down.

THE speech of Mr. Sandford at Boston to the Republican Convention contained very sound morality and most excellent wisdom. We called attention to it a few days ago, with reference to its tribute to Democratic doctrine. What will strike the reader is the inconsistency between the theories advanced and the practices pursued. It would be difficult to detach things in their nature inseparable; to believe that principles were sound when their exponents were bad. High-sounding professions of purity of purpose do not answer where impure actions have been the unvarying rule. Abstract principles of republicanism may be very good; men sometimes steal the livery of heaven to serve the devil in, and with all the fair pretences of Mr. Sandford the Democrats at least will hardly trust to their sincerity when such ntradictory and universal practises present themselves. There in Massachusetts, right under Mr. Sandford's eye, is Ben Butler. one of the fairest exponents of medern Republicanism. He was not consigned to private life because his principles were condemned, but because his offensive arrogance clashed with the ambitious expectations of men of his own party. A party cannot claim that its principles are sound or pure when it presents in such unbroken succession the characters that have disgraced the present administration, men, too, still trusted, still pursuing their nefarious career, only brought to a halt by the vigilance of a Democratic Congress, and still defended to the last by their party friends and party organs. "By their fruits shall ye know them," and with the crop of Delanos, Babcocks, Belknaps, Robesons, etc., it is impossible to avoid the conclusion that the Republican tree is very rotten. THE Statesville American claims that the Republican party has reduced its promises to return to specie payments, by the law just put in force to issue silver small change. In the first place, this is the work of a Democratic Congress. In the next, the American has read to little advantage if he has not discovered that the issue of silver is in no wise a return to specie payments, but the issue of a metal now so debased in value that it is worth less by 10 or 12 per cent. than greenbacks, while gold is worth as much above. Until gold and greenbacks are made equal in value, specie payments will not have been resumed, and silver will only enact the part of a very pretty substitute for the shin plasters so long in use.

As to North Carolina's Claims.

Cincinnati Enquirer

There has been for many years au mpression that North Carolina produced nothing in the world except tar, turpentine, pitch, rosin, and Bill Allen. Whether it was believed that these five staples of existence were enough to enti le the Old North State to honorable distinction in the sisterhood, or that others she had not, we will not pretend to argue at this time. Enough it is to know that all five of them have been in time past, are now, and promise to be in the future important integrals in the commerce and affairs of our nation. The tar, turpentine, pitch and rosin are certainly entitled to the rank of indispensables in the order named to our agriculture, our manufactures, our shipbuilding and our commerce generally, while Bill Allen has in times past and in times recent shown himself so available to all classes and conditions of American people that we are inclined to dispute North Carolina's proprietorship in him, and claim for him the nation at

We all claim him now. large. these are not the titles on which the Old North State bases her claims to distinction. She is a large producer of other valuable staples in the commerce of the world. With imate and variety of She has a coast range of ove 200 miles, with two of the finest harbors on the Western Continent; she has seven navigable rivers emptying into the Atlantic, and numerous smaller ones which furnish waterpower equal to the famed "powers" of the New England States. She has 1,100 miles of railroad completed and in active operation, with almost an equal amount projected and in course of construction. In the way of agricultural products she can point with pride to her broad acreage of wheat, cars, rye, barley and to bacco and cotton; in l orticulture to her applies reaches. apples, peaches, pears and grapes; in sweet-potatoes she heads all the rist of the States. In the way of minerals she produces gold, silver, copper, leal, zinc and from. The first gold mines in the United States were discovered in North Carolina, in 1820. covered in North Caroffos in 1820, and they were worked with great profit until 1847—with so great profit indeed, that the government established a branch mint at Raleigh, which was run until a few years ago. Up to that time twenty-nine counties in the State produced gold in sufficient quantities to be profitable to the quantities to be profitable to the miner. Until the discovery of the California mines in 1849 all the gold dug in the United States came from North Carolina and Georgia. But ranking in importance all the other mineral deposits is the iron of North Carolina. In thirty counties of the State hon is found in workable quantities, and in most of these the deposit is of remarkable purity. The Red Hemittite ore, so famed in Mis-souri, is abundant here, as are also the Limonite and the Magnetite, the former two being entirely free from sulphur, and therefore very easily worked. Twelve counties copper, and before the war the copper mines of North Carolina were among the most profitable of the kind in the United States. Besides these there are large deposits of graphite manganese and mica have been discovered, all of them in paying quantities, and only requiring scientific development to make them exceedingly profitable. But we have said enough. When a State can produce all these things we have enumerated and Bill Allen besides it has no occasion to feel ashamed of its place in the sisterhood of Commonwealths or to be backward in the matter of asserting its claims to a proper recognition. North Carolina will please step forward and take a front seat in the audience. We invite her there.

"A Drop of Joy in Every Word."

FLEMINGTON. Hunterdon Co, N.

June 26th, 1874. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. #### NOON DISPATCHES. Meeting of the Seventeenth M. E. Con-

BALTIMORE, May 1.—The seventeenth delegated General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled this morning at the Academy of Music and was called to order by Bishop Janes. Bishops Simpson, Scott, Ames, Bowman, Harris, Foster, Haven, Andrews, Merrill and Peck occupied seats on the platform and the auditorium was filled with delegates. Dr. Aaron Wood of the Northwest Indiana Conference, and Dr. Gardner Baker of the Northern New York Conference were invited as seniors to take seats upon the platform. After the reading of passages of scripture, singing of hymn, and prayer, Bishop Janes stated that he held in his hand the roll of delegates to the Conference prepared by Geo. W. Woodruff. Secretary of the last General Conference, and asked the pteasure of the Conference. On motion of Dr. Curry, of the New York Christian Advocate, Mr. Woodruff proceeded to call the roll of delegates, at the conclusion of which Bishon Janes announced a quorum present. On motion of Dr. Newman, of the Washington City Conference, they proceeded to elect a Secretary.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1.-The Senate is discussing the proposed amendment to the rules governing impeach ment trals so as to provide that the deliberations of the Senate on questions submitted shall be in public. The Railroad Committee of the Senate has met after a week's notice to call up the Huntingston Southern Pacific Railroad. It went over by default. A new notice is required before it can be considered. The Western Union Company have bought the Southern Atlantic Telegraph lines.

Troops Ordered to the Mining Region

NEW YORK, May 1st .- A despatch from Columbus, Ohio, of the 30th, says, Adjutant-General Wikoff left here to-day for Massillon, to direct the movement of troops ordered to the Mahoning mining region, the civil authorities having advised Goy. Hayes of their inability to protect the property of operators and lives of the miners, who desire to work against the mob who have prevented the working of the miners for some time rast. It is thought the work will be esumed to-morrow on the arrival of the militia.

Real Estate Pool Case.

Washington, May 1.-The World says, the firm of Kilbourne & Latta have decided, it is understood, to address a letter to the Speaker of the House announcing their willingness to submit all testimony in their po session including their books and papers relating to the real estate pool to the committee now examining that subject, also that on Tuesday, if not to-morrow, the resolution of Mr. Tar-box to investigate the Union Pacific scandal, with which Mr. Blaine's name has been connected will be

Pardon of Ex-Collector Maguire.

WASHINGTON, May 1.-The Re publican says. District Attorney Dyer has not forwarded from St. Louis any recommendation about he pardon of ex-Collector Maguire. but private advices says that he will not approve of the petition to the President for his release. It is understood here that Dver's declination is based upon political consider ations. The same answer will be made in regard to the application for the pardon of McKee.

Lo, The Poor Crippled Soldiers. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—Delegates from the Peusioners Union called on the President to-day and asked him to protect the soldiers and especially the crippled ones in office under the reduction of force. The Preside t replied he would do what Kilbourn The Mum Newspaper Cor-respondent Invites The House Com-mittee To Walk Up and See Him.

WASHINGTON, May 1st .- A letter was read from Kilbourne that he was willing and invited the committee to visit his office and examine his books with request that if they found nothing wrong or affecting public interests they will so report to the House and not publish or allow to be published "our" business transactions in which no one but ourselves and our patrons are interested "Again assuring you of my highest regard for yourselfand respects for the honorable House of Representatives, I remain, very respectfully, Hallet Kilbourne." On motion of Giover, of Missouri, the communication was laid on the table.

Mr. Blaine Rises to a Personal in the Herald.

WASHINGTON, May 1.-Blaine rising to a personal explanation sent to the clerk's desk and had read a Washington telegram in the New York Herald reflecting upon him in certain bonds of the Kansas & Pacific Railroad Company and suggest ing that in his explanation last week he found it too embarrassing to be answered and had therefore taken refuge in silence. Mr. Blaine demolished in general and in detail the whole unsubstantial fabric and to this end read several letters from newspaper correspondents to himself all exonerating him.

The Impeachment Court iu Prepara-

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 1.-In the Impeachment Court to day pen-ding McDonald's motion to rescind the order allowing respondent to open and close the argument, Blair by unanimous consent, spoke against the motions to rescind.
